

November 1, 2018

Dear staff of the New Haven Job Corps Center,

We are pleased to announce Serrato Corporation was awarded the contract to operate the New Haven Job Corps Center, effective December 1, 2018.

Our transition team will be working hard to make the transition smooth, effective and a positive experience for both staff and students. We will make every attempt to maintain minimal disruptions to daily operations.

We will be working with the Department of Labor to schedule transitional activities during the month of November. We have also established a website where applicants can review and apply for positions. You can access the website at www.contractortransition.com, beginning Friday, November 2, 2018.

We are excited to be part of the New Haven Job Corps Center community and working with you in providing unparalleled services to our students and a positive work environment for our employees that emphasizes safety, teamwork, responsibility, respect and opportunities for advancement.

We look forward to meeting all of you and working together to provide our students with the education, training and life skills they need to build brighter futures for themselves and their communities.

Sincerely,

Ramon Serrato
President/CEO
